Welcome to high school!! We are glad to have you here at Lexington High School. In English 9, we will come together and explore questions related to you, as freshmen entering high school. During this unique time of your life, we will ask you to think about the importance of belonging, life's journey, self-reflection, lasting love, and human potential. You will discuss, reflect, and write about your life experience compared to characters and situations in exciting novels and short stories we will read together. In addition, you will write about your future dreams/ambitions and compose an informative research paper on a topic that interests you. Of course, we will learn new vocabulary, writing structure, and review grammar throughout each unit. Be prepared to enjoy listening and reading literature, enhance your understanding of yourself and the world through literature, and become a confident and expressive writer. We are excited you are part of the "English 9 Adventure."
